

The members of the Interstate Technology & Regulatory Council (ITRC) PFAS, 1,4-dioxane and HCBs Teams wish to acknowledge and thank the individuals, organizations, and agencies that contributed to this online Risk Communication Toolkit document.

The PFAS Team was led by: Bob Mueller, New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, and Ginny Yingling, Minnesota Department of Health.

The 1,4-dioxane team was led by: Heather Barbare, Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment, Gladys A. Liehr, Florida Department of Health, and Kirsten Hiortdahl, formerly of the North Carolina Department of Environmental Quality.

The HCBs team was led by: Ben Holcomb, Utah Department of Environmental Quality and Angela Shambaugh, Vermont Department of Environmental Conservation.

The team leaders were assisted by Program Advisors: Lesley Hay Wilson and Jim Rocco of Sage Risk Solutions LLC for the PFAS Team; Matt Placky of GDIT for the 1,4-dioxane Team; and Cherri Baysinger of Cymbella Consulting, LLC for the HCBs Team. Tadbir Singh, ITRC/ECOS Program Associate provided support to the teams.

During the development of the Risk Communication Toolkit the team received many comments and reviews from experts across U.S. EPA, U.S. DOD and U.S. DOE, state agencies, consultants, stakeholders and academic institutions. This input was invaluable to the development of this ITRC product. The teams greatly appreciate the many others who offered advice, suggestions, reviews and comments.

Specifically, the teams wish to thank and recognize the efforts and important contributions of the following ITRC members.
